

Financial Hardship Application Form

Application guidelines

Your superannuation is designed to provide for you in retirement, so generally you're unable to access it until you permanently retire or meet another condition of release. However, there are some circumstances where you may be able to access your super early, and experiencing severe financial hardship is one of them.

How do I apply to access my super due to severe financial hardship?

Step 1: Locate your Centrelink Customer Reference Number (CRN) and Tax File Number (TFN)

You'll need these when completing your application form.

Step 2: Complete the application form

You're required to complete the financial hardship application from page 6.

Step 3: Provide proof of your identity

There are two ways you can provide your proof of identity:

- 1 Have your identity electronically verified using your current driver licence or passport number (more information on page 8), or
- 2 Provide certified paper copies of your proof of identity documents (more information on page 5).

Step 4: Send us your completed application (page 6–9)

Forms can be returned via email, FirstNet or post. Please contact us if you require assistance logging into FirstNet.

Do I qualify for early release of my super?

We can only grant you an early release of your super benefit on grounds of financial hardship in the following two circumstances:

Claim type 1

- 1 You've been receiving an eligible Commonwealth income support payment continuously for the last 26 weeks (see page 2 for eligible payments), and
- 2 You're unable to meet reasonable and immediate family living expenses (expenses that need to be paid and which you cannot pay because of financial hardship), and
- 3 You've not received any financial hardship payments from the fund in the last 12 months.

Claim type 2

- 1 You've reached age 60, and
- 2 You've received an eligible Commonwealth income support payment for a total of at least 39 weeks after reaching age 60 (see page 2 for eligible payments), and
- 3 You're not gainfully employed on a full-time or part-time basis. Gainfully employed means employed or self-employed for gain or reward (in any business, trade, profession, vocation, calling, occupation or employment) for at least 10 hours each week.

Note: If you do not qualify, please refer to page 3 for information on ATO benefit releases on compassionate grounds.

How much can I withdraw?

Claim type 1

- The minimum amount that can be withdrawn from the fund is $1,000 and the maximum amount is $10,000.
- If your super balance is less than $1,000 you can withdraw your total account balance

Claim type 2

- There are no limits to the amount you can apply to withdraw.

Note: If you're under 60 years old, we will withhold tax on the taxable component of your withdrawal at a rate of 22%. See 'How much will my early withdrawal be taxed?' for more information.

For example, if you apply to release $10,000, and are taxed at 22% on the whole withdrawal, then you will receive an after-tax amount of $7,800.

How much will my early withdrawal be taxed?

We may be required to deduct tax from your financial hardship benefit. The tax payable will depend on the components of the benefit being released and your age. If you're age 60 or over, no tax is withheld or payable on your financial hardship benefit.

If you're under age 60, we must withhold tax at a rate of 22% on the taxable component of your withdrawal. Your actual tax payable may be less than this, and if so, you may receive a refund of tax from the ATO after you lodge your tax return.

For more information please refer to the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) available at www.cfs.com.au or by calling us on 13 13 36.

What is ATO early release of super on compassionate grounds?

If you do not qualify for early release of your superannuation benefits on the grounds of severe financial hardship, you may consider applying to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) for early release of some of your super on compassionate grounds. Compassionate grounds include needing money to pay for:

- medical treatment and medical transport for you or your dependant,
- palliative care for you or your dependant,
- making a payment on a home loan or council rates so you don't lose your home,
- accommodating a disability for you or your dependant,
- expenses associated with the death, funeral or burial of your dependant.

You can contact the ATO to check whether you are eligible. If you are, you can apply for release of benefits via MyGov. For further information, refer to the ATO website (www.ato.gov.au).

Before applying for a payment it's important to consider:

- How it will impact your retirement
- If you'll need to pay more tax
- Any impacts it may have on benefits you're receiving e.g. Centrelink, work cover
- How it will impact your insurance cover
